

BULLOCK

Removal time:
17 minutes 5 seconds

Score: ★★★★★

Remarkably well-built, Bullock withstood powerful, prolonged attack without even moving. Besides being easy to use and competitively priced, Bullock has the superior strength that made it the deserving winner. It's only drawback is that it's hard to see, so it doesn't not earn points as a deterrent.

WINS
BULLOCK
Car anti-theft system

WITH 17 MINUTES, 5 SECONDS OF RESISTANCE TO REMOVAL AS COMPARED WITH THE AVERAGE OF 2 MINUTES, 10 SECONDS FOR THE OTHER ANTI-THEFT DEVICES!

The test was carried out by two "thieves" in daylight, without limits on noise and with tools that are readily available. In the real world, it would be too hard for a single thief working "undercover" to disengage the best anti-theft devices.

"HILKA ELEPHANT" STEERING WHEEL BAR

Removal time:
9 seconds

Score: ★★★★★
Its colour is its only real deterrent. Too easy to break.

AUTOLOK PROTECTOR

Removal time:
5 seconds

Score: ★
It looks strong, but was removed in 5 seconds.

DISKLOK MkII

Removal time:
4 minutes 20 seconds

Score: ★★★
Awkward blows and lots of noise were needed to remove it.

POLCO BLOCKLOCK

Removal time:
4 seconds

Score: ★
It's cheap, but took only 4 seconds to remove.

HALFORDS STEERING WHEEL BAR

Removal time:
11 minutes 54 seconds

Score: ★★★
It doesn't protect the centre of the wheel, but did stay in place.

AUTO TASER

Removal time:
14 seconds

Score: ★
Sparking electrodes and a siren are extra deterrents, but not enough.

AUTOLOK 2000

Removal time:
5 minutes 24 seconds

Score: ★★★★★
Much improved, but a bit clumsy to install.

LINWOOD TOPLOCK

Removal time:
9 seconds

Score: ★
Thieves can attack and open it in countless ways.

METRO STOPLOCK LED

Removal time:
1 minute 06 seconds

Score: ★★★
Pricy, but a good deterrent.

METRO STOPLOCK PRO

Removal time:
3 minutes

Score: ★★★
Although approved by Thatcham, this anti-theft device was quickly defeated.